A year on, Ťrafo Gallery returns to the collective exhibition Ťrafo Art Salon, which will present the current work of twenty artists with whom it has long collaborated, as well as works by artists with whom it has recently launched new exciting collaborations. Come and take a peek behind the curtain at what delights are in store in the 2025 exhibition programme and enjoy a selection of the latest work by renowned Czech contemporary artists. From the sale of the works, ŤG will support the repair of flood areas in Northern Moravia, specifically the village of Česká Ves.

The aim of the autumn group exhibition is to present the current work of artists with whom Ťrafo Gallery has enjoyed a long collaboration and for whom it is planning solo exhibitions for next year. Blanka Čermáková, curator and director of the gallery, unveils next year's exhibition programme, which includes monographic exhibitions by Alžběta Jungrová, Jiří Marek, Kateřina Ondrušková, František Skála, Vladimír Věla and Zdeněk Ťrs. After six years, the space of Hall 14 in the Holešovice Market Hall will again be filled with new works by Ira Svobodová, while eight years on, the painter Jan Vytiska will return to the gallery. Other artists presented at the Ťrafo Art Salon will participate in group exhibitions during the course of next year. Visitors can look forward to the latest work from the studios of Michal Cimala, Andros Foros, Jan Kaláb, Laura Limbourg, Pavla Malinová, Anna Neborová, Michael Rittstein, Jaroslav Róna, Lucie Rosická, Jakub Roztočil and Dana Sahánková.

Individual exhibitions will again be prepared by Ťrafo Gallery in collaboration with renowned curators such as Petr Vaňous, Martina Mrázová and Pavel Dvořák. As is traditional, they will be accompanied by the lavish catalogues that Ťrafo Gallery regularly publishes.
